

wearing scarfs

is my lifestyle

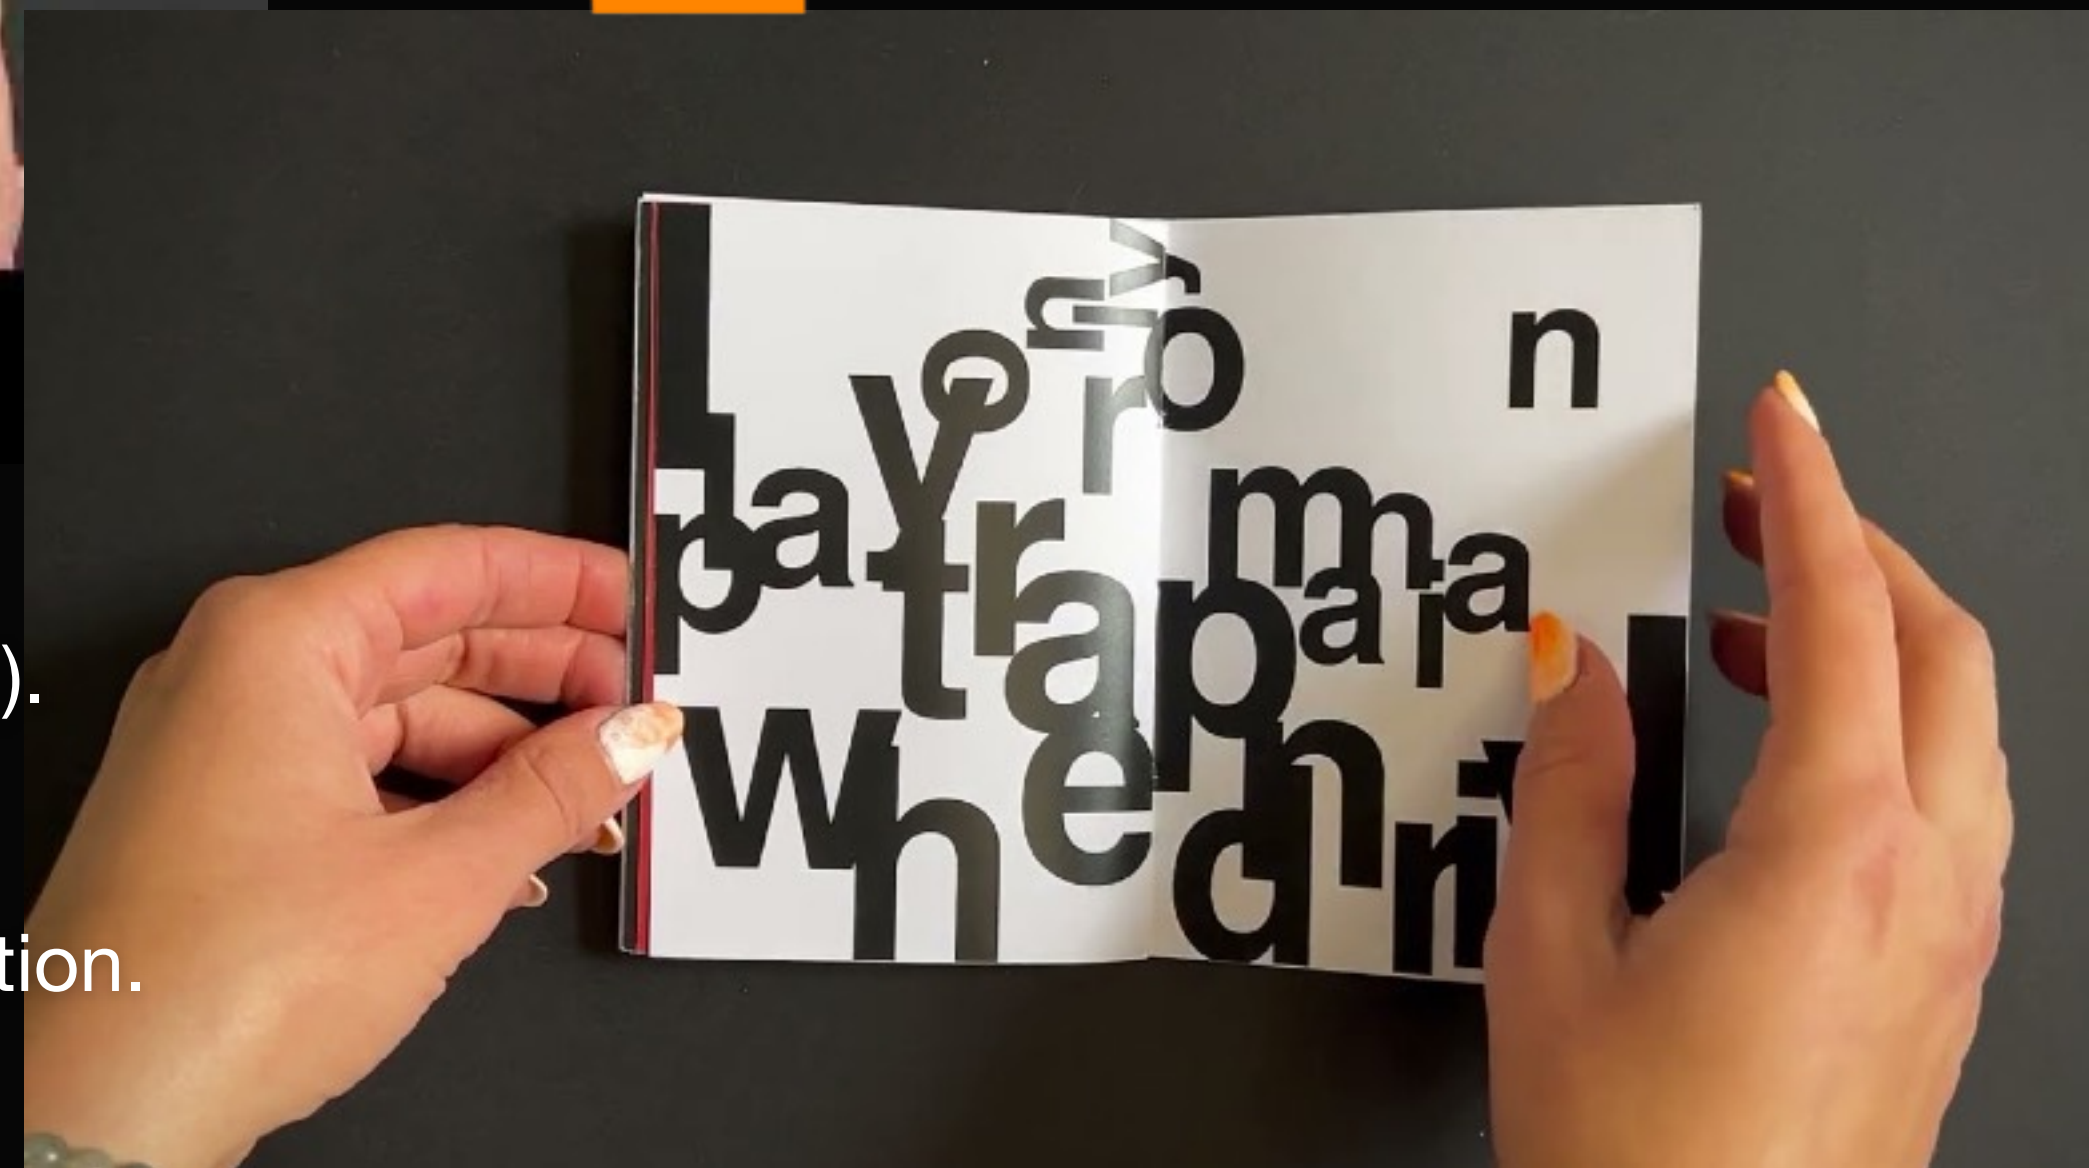

the previous animation is based on these zines. the concept remains the same: introducing two persons to each other through a medium of choice.

i started by interviewing the persons, asking basic questions people usually use when they get to know each other (like "what's your favorite food/drink/animal/music genre?" etc.).
based on their answers, i created and designed statements, wanting to let both persons wonder about each other after reading the zines, instead of getting a straight piece of information.

storytelling

the idea behind this project was to create (out of random and messy sketches) zines whose designs have continuation, carrying you through a visual story.

arşaluis negrişan

this project is a way in which i introduced, through a medium of choice, two persons to each other, without them ever meeting in real life.
